&

INDIAN ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF VETERINARY RESEARCH (IAAVR)

INVITATION

Indian Veterinary Congress is a congregation of scientists from all subjects of Veterinary Science. The main aim of the congress is to develop Indian leadership in Veterinary Science to make our Veterinarians competent for global recognition. The 20th Indian Veterinary Congress and the National symposium will be large conclave of Veterinary scientists from all over the country and bring out the recent developments on Translational Animal Health, Production and Food safety. It gives us great pleasure to invite the Veterinary and Animal Scientists and research students to the 20th Indian Congress to be organized at Madras Veterinary College.

VENUE

Tamil Nadu Veterinary and Animal Sciences University (TANUVAS) established in 1989 is the first Veterinary university in India. The University has four Veterinary Colleges, one Food Science College, one Poultry Production and Management College, four Research Stations, twenty University Training and Research Centres, three Farmers Training Centres, three Krishi Vigyan Kendras, two Avian Disease Diagnostic Laboratories, one Pharmacovigilance Laboratory for Animal Feed and Food safety and one Central University Laboratory. TANUVAS has been conferred with the prestigious Sardar Patel Outstanding ICAR Institution Award 2011.

Madras Veterinary College, a constituent college of TANUVAS, was established on 1st October, 1903. It is one of the oldest Veterinary colleges in the country. The college is recognised as a premier veterinary institute in the country and world over.
